Creative and compassionate professional with a Master's in Advertising and Marketing, a strong background in digital illustration, and extensive experience in customer relationship management. Passionate about empowering individuals through art and creative expression, with hands-on volunteer experience supporting adults with disabilities. Recognized for blending artistic flair with excellent communication and interpersonal skills to build inclusive and engaging environments.

Artist Statement

Aishat Arowosegbe is a multidisciplinary artist merging traditional mediums with digital precision (Procreate, Adobe Fresco). Drawing from reimagining Yoruba textile patterns, and the emotional resonance of portraiture, her art interrogates societal norms like beauty standards and cultural erasure. Using digital tools and sometimes traditional media, for bold character studies, she amplifies underrepresented voices particularly those of (Black) women.
